Band Biography

Recording artists FOG Blues & Brass Band from Kitchener Ontario, Canada, have seen success with their debut CD Into The Fog! (2019) Every track tasted air time on live radio locally and abroad. In 2022, FOG released a Christmas song "Here Comes Santa Claus" and in January 2023 released a single "Why Get Up" The latest CD "Twelve Bar Prescription" was released May 2023. FOG were semi finalists at the International Blues Challenge 2020 held in Memphis Tennessee. Comprised of well- seasoned musicians,

FOG Blues & Brass Band EPK PG1

FOG is a powerhouse live! Hitting the stage as a 7-piece band, they always thrill their audience with an energetic live performance! FOG's classic Blues consists of an R&B / Rockin' sound with a twist of infused purposeful horn lines and harmonies. Fronted by a commanding lead vocalist supported by strong soloists, FOG's live show is not to be missed!

TINNITIST

Reviews June 16, 2023 "Music is an art, and we always want to create something meaningful and enjoyable for our listeners," says the band. "We might overthink things at times, but we're considerate of people's feelings, and we want to be good humans, spreading positivity through our music."

BKONTHESCENE

Produced by Grammy and Juno Winner John 'Beetle' Bailey at Jancar Studios and at The Drive Shed, the cheerful ode (Here Comes Santa Claus) to St. Nick... Having worked with the FOG Blues & Brass Band on its well-received "In the Fog!" Record, Bailey suggested the band reinterpret the classic song in their own style.

Special to the Record September 2016

Fog Blues and Brass create cyber-buzz

Hills, lead singer-songwriter from Fog Blues and Brass Band recently submitted two of the band's original songs for a songwriting competition to a music website called indi.com. "We are at 1,750,000 (last count: 1,759,002) buzz points," exclaims Hills, still a little thrown by the numbers. "The songs were from our last live show from Cork Hall. We are excited because one of the songs had 40,000 hits. I went back to the site, looked at it and it said 1,750,000..."
